Wicked! A puzzle of yours I could actually afford! WOOT!

It would be super-cool in steel though. Can you let us know when they are available in that? I think I see a ring or two I want.

"Take Five" and "Sixth Sense" are already available in stainless steel, according to their order pages.

I agree these are great designs for metal. Only $20 made from stainless steel!

The puzzle rings I've played with are easy to take apart. But putting them together can be quite difficult.
