Hallo,

if I open my favorites, I get a List with the items. OK.
But if I want open one of the items in a new tab (clicking scroll wheel) that seems not possible. Or do I do sth wrong?
Tested on FF and IE.
The stupid thing is: If I open it with a normal click and go Back. It starts at page 1, no matter on with page I was before.
It is annoying, if you want order sth from your favorites.
edit: on "the feed of the Futre" the tabed browsing is working ...

Have you tried to right click then click open in new tab? I never tried clicking with my mouse wheel before...

My mouse wheel click is set to switch applications.

But granted the click behaviour of the model link on 'My Favourites' page is not right, usually I hold down CTRL, then left click to open in a new tab, on my favourites, this results in the page being opened in a new browser.
