Hi everyone!

I am seeking an artist to build a 3D model of my company's cartoon mascot. The character is a humanoid children's cartoon character, not a superhero or monster or a robot. Think more like Bob's Big Boy or Fred Flintstone. I am looking for an artist who can show a solid portfolio of actual 3D renders of 3D printable characters of this type. Video game musclemen and alien monsters need not apply.

Turnaround is pretty much ASAP. Thanks!

-Chris

Are you seriously claiming to be the designer of Yogi Bear?

More to the point, Yogi Bear came out in 1958. Something in your story stinks.

If you mean they hired you as a freelancer to model one of their characters in Zbrush or something, then you should rephrase.
