Is there anyone on this site who is selling sail ship models? I'm looking to get this as a gift for my father who is really into old sail boats. The bigger the better. Price is no issue because it'll be his 50th birthday.

do you know exactly what you are looking for? i am sure i, or one of the other talented modelers on this site could help out... post pictures and see if someone could help...

FYI-
i have modeled a ROW BOAT in my shop... but i don't know if that is what you are looking for.

Well I'm talking about a boat such as this: http://upit.cc/i/7a1a5fc8.jpeg
But I don't want it to be raw, I would like all the ship detail, colors, lines, etc.

Well if it doesn't exist on shapeways already, easiest thing would to be to search for a 3D file on google for a ship that you want and have it printed here. You wouldn't be able to sell it as it's someone else's IP without their permission.
