So this is the completed case collection.

There's some new and some i have posted before but i included them because i have completed my brief of 5 working cases (i know there's 8 but i got carried away).

Ill add descriptions and prices over the next couple of days.

At the moment i dont plan to add a 'mark-up' to the products. this is only because i would make them downloadable but i would like to retain IP rights.....although im not sure if this is how it works.

PS.....i would have added this to my collections sticky but i doubt i would get any feedback and i didnt want to post the newer ones individually as they would clutter the forum

Regards

EDIT: why do my photos appear higher quality in forum posts compared to my individual shop ones?
they are the same files just placed on larger canvas.

great collection and range of designs here. I really like the customizable aspect of Pixel. And little guy is a great pattern, when will that one be available?
