hi

My name is Alan, artist by trade, I have 10 years experience of modelling and texturing, mainly organic and architectural details(used to be in the building game before re-training) modelling, low and high poly, can retopologise scan data and convert file formats

I am quick, so it wont cost more than it should!

wont bore you with the software I use, end results that count cannot give you a rate, but will give you a quote you can check out more of my work here
