Wow, that's just really cool, and it looks very nice as well. Was it a lot of work to figure out and model the mechanism?

Such a lovely looking and simple design! If it does work out well enough for you to put this in your shop I will definitely be ordering one! I'd love to see it with a different colour for each of the two sides when in heart form, black and red would be perfect!

Hi Sapro,

this is really cool. Great idea, great design!

Michael
