Hi everyone, I know some time ago Shapeways use to offer black necklaces for pendants. Unfortunately they don't do that anymore

Anyway, for those of you who sell jewelry, especially pendants. How do you deal with this?

Right now the only way i can see to solve this problem is to stock the jewelry, then later ship it with the necklace. But this will increase the prices dramatically.

Any ideas on how to offer necklaces with pendants cheaply?

Back in February, you could still ask for a necklace to be included - vaugely recall wither Nancy or Mary was looking into a variety of different necklaces that could be included, but I'm unable to find the forum post about that.

I have contacted shapeways about this, they told me they don't offer necklaces anymore. For now anyway.
