I wanted to post a Feedback item, but I can't sign in at feedback.shapeways.com.

If I try without being logged in at Shapeways, it takes me to the Shapeways login, which...logs me into Shapeways. After which I'm still not signed into feedback-land.

If I try while logged into Shapeways, the Sign In button pops up a duplicate of wherever I last was in the Shapeways site. I.e. not a sign-in page, just a random Shapeways page.

This isn't as important as fixing the sales report and the Co-Creator.

Those are important.

Can we have an ETA on either? Please? Christmas is coming, people want to get monogrammed stuff.

Carthago delenda est.

Hi Bathsheba,

My Sales will be back this Friday 14th September, ahead of payments on the 15th! woo!

Co-creators have a very short eta right after that.

I've posted more details in this thread:

Thanks for the uservice feedback, you should be able to sign in seperately into it, but I will report that it is still buggy.

Best,
