This came 9 days ago and I've read somewhere (can't find where, now) that the stuff should arrive before 12 of this month.
Is there a way to know how things are proceeding?

Take a look on your My orders page for order status.
Also keep an eye on the Maerial Status Page for any expected delays.

You can also contact service@shapeways.com - they can check the status of your order for you.

Thank you for the answers

I don't want to bother the S team just for now, there's still almost one week to the deadline.

The order says "Actual ship date PENDING", if that doesn't change on Friday then I'll write.

Thank you again for info!
