New guy here, was getting ready to place my first order but while I was checking out I was being charged state tax ??? I'm in Washington state and we don't pay state tax on any on-line orders. I went thru and re-did the check out twice but still was being charged 7.7% tax ! can someone or anyone shed some light on this for me ?? Thank you in advance.

Your not shipping to NY are you? only state that should be paying sales tax is New York (and maybe California?), unless something has changed in the laws recently. I'd email Service to figure out.

Thank you, I'm in Washington state, which does not do sales tax on on-line orders.

Hi nmanic,

Welcome to Shapeways!

This comes from Jay, our Finance guy:

We are legally required to charge Sales Tax for orders shipped to Washington State, just like Amazon does, because we have a physical presence in the state, just like Amazon.

Let us know if you have any further questions!

Best,
Natalia

Hi nmanic,

We have a physical presence in Seattle.

Kind regards,
Mitchell
