I can't believe i didn't find this site until recently. I was waiting for something like this to show up!

At any rate, I'm Treadshot A1. I have 2 years experience as a kitbasher, and i specialize in modifying and painting Transformers, and other action figures.

I've always had a shortage of weapon parts and i'm not that great at sculpting, so i should be using this site a lot for creating those parts.

Currently i utilize a1kitbashing.spaces.live.com as my website (which i'm way too lazy to keep updated ), but you can find my work on most Transformers forums.

P.S. As the title suggests, I often just shorten my username to A1, again because i'm too lazy )
