Hello everyone

My name is Carlos, I love the concept behind Shapeways. I posted on here a month ago and already had some positive feedback, so I've created a new website to promote my business, Alucinor. Check it out and let me know what you think!

www.alucinor.net
www.facebook.com/alucinordesign

I've got a background in Mechanical Engineering, experience with Solidworks modeling/drafting, and just getting into Zbrush. I hope to hear from some of you soon!

Thanks
-Carlos
