I would like someone to model a character from a favorite game of mine Fire Emblem and the character is chrom.

I would like it to be a game size character so about 2-3 inches tall. I have provided a picture of what he looks like and if you think this is too complex to create into a model let me know so I don't keep asking.

if anyone could send me a message that they are interested, with a price in mind, that would be great!

Thanks, RDL
