Hello,

I am a total newbie to all of this but is it possible to make something like this:

Can colours get put on it or is it better off being painted?

how much about would this cost me?

I would like to make that,

Check out my web site to see what we have made....

pysical3d.net

or email me at pysical3d@gmail.com and we can discuss details.....

Hi Shiggins92,

You totally can do something like that - either by printing in Full Color Sandstone or painting a WSF model.
