hi there

today my first piece of jewelry arrived and i am very satisfied!
it looks even better than i suspected and i thank all the wonderful people at shapeways for the great work.

primitives from my models

i love this site, everything works fine and is great (i mean: from uploading the stuff, presenting it until receiving there is so less friction - even that is an experience for itself!)

have a nice one,

david

p.s.: when you want to read the story behind this piece (in german), then go this way:
