Hi, I'm a newbie to SW's but not to 3D, nor 3D printing either. But I started thinking about joining SW, so I figured why not give it a shot. So, I uploaded some models, and opened a store. Then I figured I better say hi, in case I need some help from people that have been around here for a while! I'm a long time 3D Max user, and have been in 3D for so many years, I've lost count, and so old, not sure I can count that high now! Ha!

I've been in several different industries from Engineering, Simulation, to Software design and Games.

Anyway, hi, need help with Max, or maybe need a script, hit me up. It might cost you, but asking is free!

My store.
