Simple, beautiful.
I hope you update the model details with those beautiful pictures.

Beautiful.

Can we conclude shapeways is now doing a real good polishing for Stainless Steel?

That's just gorgeous. Is that the same diameter as your gear ring?

Hey that's cool! I'm anxiously awaiting the arrival of my SS rings too, I hope they come out as beautiful as yours did!

It's 22 mm diameter and "gear ring" is 21,6 mm.

I can create pretty much any another size if anyone wants to, just let me know...

Sounds good to me! I actually ordered a copy of your Gear Ring in glossy bronze last week, so I'll be posting photos when that arrives.
