I disabled the template for this model a while ago:
http://www.shapeways.com/model/107881/gyroid\_bones\_color.htm I

It showed up as normal, and one could only "order" the default model I uploaded.

But now (when logged out) it says "personalize" and if you click that, you can still upload textures?

Something break?

Nicely done!
59 minutes, status resolved

Thanks!

Even better is 11 minutes from his comment verifying the problem, and completion of a solution.
