The question is in the title...

Is there an easy way to track package from Shapeways?

If not I think it would be a sweet feature, especially for pro and semi-pro or impatient hobbyists knowing when you should expect your parcels

I've been waiting at the door every morning like a pooch waiting for his master to get back from the grocery store...

Hi guys,

thanks for the feedback. It is on our (rather long) todo as well. We will keep you posted when we make it available.

regards,
