A friend of mine is a member of Bar Fleet, which is a Star Trek club with a drinking problem.. or is it a drinking club with a Star Trek problem.. either way, this is how everything came out

The first pic is how it arrived, The second is after polishing and the last two are done

Enjoy,

Ray

Ohhh 2 things i forgot to mention... this is my First Model from Shapeways, and i think it came out FANTASTICALLY!

And because it's Stainless Steel, i was able to use a name badge Magnet to hold this design on to the shirt!

I'm very thrilled with my first design

a) where do i sign up?

b) that looks great and the magnet is brilliant. what's in the wells, epoxy resin? is it clear or tinted?

c) if you touch it, does a drink call out to you in voice-over?

Good question.. i have no idea where you sign up for BarFleet... i will ask... I was super thrilled that the magnet worked with out having to add a backing As far as the background, it is a 5min epoxy, with some Alumilite coloring added to give a nice amber color It turned out Fantastically!

I'm trying to decide what my next design will be after this one...
