Hi,
I used the Black Detail offer, to order some objects. The progress of the order is still on "Paid".
Normally I would already have received a confirmation that the printing had started.

Is there an issue with the Black Detail orders?

Cheers,

Jeroen

Ditto. First time order so I didn't know whether to expect any E-mail or status changes

I was just about to post to ask a similar question.

I think that they will have a small mountain of orders (mine is itself a considerable mole hill), I expect everyone at shapeways is working hard to get through the queue.

iirc they also mentioned using a different courier starting this week, and with shapeways touring the industrialised world I expect they are feeling just a tad pooped.

Anyhow, Keep up the good work!

I am sure I will be eagerly sitting by my front door in a week or so waiting for my parcel

There isn't an issue with the Black Detail orders. There is however an issue with the emails going out. We are trying to solve that now.

Joris,
Thanks for the response ... hope to see the printed items arriving soon!

Cheers,

Jeroen

Aah Joris, always the bearer of good tidings... Thanks

I went a little nuts on the black material here too... will be posting pics as they arrive

Yeah, you're not the only one that went nuts. The Objet Eden and Connex will be pretty busy the coming weeks.

Ordered 11 days ago and status is still stuck on 'paid'
Is the web status linked to the email system somehow?

yes the webstatus and emails are linked.

Please send us an email at the service (at) address and we we can give you the latest status.

This time around I got my first 'in production' message in under 2 days Yay. Improvement!

Thank you Shapeways...now to wait for the shipping message
