Congratulations on a very cool business and website. I work as a draftsman and have always wanted to use such a service for my artwork. I expected the price to be prohibitive, and it's quite reasonable. Only one thing - your site can be slow at times.

Hey, thanks markalanrussell! I'm Ana, Shapeways' Community Manager. Welcome.

Ben and the rest of our development team are actually working on a few things right now to improve website speed. You should see a difference over the coming weeks.

Also, since you just found Shapeways, why not say hi to everyone over on the Introductions thread?
