Hi everyone! I became a member about two months ago after checking out the article in the New York Times. Sorry it took so long to drop in. Been busy testing and printing a bunch o' stuff.

I am really impressed with how well this site is set up; it's so easy to use, navigate, upload, order, etc. The customer service is phenomenal and timely. In addition, there's also some wonderful models and talented people here, and the forum topics have been very helpful. Thanks to all!

Hopefully I can set up something soon to take pics of my printed pieces.

Hey vertigopolka, welcome! I checked out your shop, there's some beautiful stuff going on there.

Glad you're enjoying everything so far, and just let me know if you need help along the way.
