Hi I have just came across your company and was looking to get my design delivered in silver by the 02.04.11, is that possible?

If so when would be the deadline to email you the design. It would a small peice of jewellery

Would it be possible to pay more for a faster service?

I live in scotland in the uk.

Thanks Graham

Silver takes 15 business days. so about 3 weeks. Sorry, we Americans put the month first in our dates, but I'm assuming your looking for April 2nd? That's only 18 days away, 13 business days (the second by my calendar is a Saturday. I may be wrong, but as far as I know shapeways doesn't do express delivery. So if you ordered today it would be delivered the 5th or 6th.
