When I started Shapeways user I accidentally used a bad shop name and now I noticed that I cant change it, Why is that?

Thanks
Guy

I don't know, "bgshnf" has a nice ring to it
Can imagine it on t-shirts

Send service@shapeways.com an email, they can probably help you out.

I agree, or at least multiple shops under one username associated with the site. I at one point pulled the plug on my first shop and started from scratch cause I didn't like my first name. I'd LOVE to have a whole other shop for certain designs I've come up with that have the same theme but don't match my initial shop's theme, but now I don't want to destroy or mess up any established google links or customer history I might have. I know Etsy is contemplating multiple shops, and Zazzle just rolled it out, it would be nice if Shapeways was working on something similar.
