Hey, you could feature my 3D printed tricycle! I don't seem to get many views. It's printed as one piece and fully articulated!

Hey roofoo, very cool that that wheels, pedals, and front are all fully articulated!

One thing that would make this design easier to share/promote is photographing it on a dark backdrop, to improve the contrast.

Thanks Ana. I will try but it seems like when I try using a dark background, the WSF gets overexposed and highlights are blown out. Any tips on photographing the WSF material?

I'm new here and kinda don't know proper Etiquette...

May I ask, is this file available for download?

Price?

Scott
