I received an email this morning at the usual time with sold items, and less than 10 minutes ago another one came through with just one item. Did the system change?

Cheers,
Paul

I received one few days ago in "mid day" with 2 sales of the same model sold hours after i deleted that item from my shop ...

One of the sales was made 10 days ago.. and only now got logged (again after i deleted that item for being too popular..)

So it cant be a "real time" reporting .. more like its yet another "bug" ... which i was told by Ana Brad will reply to me how that happened...

but hey .. why bother..

Personally I like my tea unsweetened. Which I always thought was an odd term. They don't take the sweetness out of it to make it. Either way I don't know why you got the later email, but I can see if I can find out.

Tea, sweetened or not is... erm... no my cup of tea

Thanks Mike, that's appreciated. I got that 'spooof vibe' because the mesage was the wrong time of day - I didn't open it, but the message looked legit from the source code.

Hi Paul, I've already been talking with Asher about this issue, like he mentioned. Can you pass along the #'s of the models where this weirdness happened, and the time and day that you received the "Yippee!" emails?

If you could just pass it along at ana@shapeways.com that'd be best.

Thanks!
