Hello,

I'd like the Stitch Bracelet to be featured for Valentine day. It can make a lovely gift.

I designed this bracelet after creating the Scoubidou (same structure as a classical scoubidou = lanyard: I was a fan when I was younger) that is one-dimensional and then the Stitch Fabric, a two dimensional version of the same pattern.

The Stitch Bracelet is basically the Stitch Fabric wrapped onto a cylinder.

The unexpected property of this bracelet is that it can be turned inside out, changing its size and shape. Don't miss this video.

By the way, it exists in 3 sizes (measure the fist circumference, not the wrist):

- Small (15.3 cm of internal circumference)
- Medium (17.6 cm of internal circumference)
- Large (20.0 cm of internal circumference)

Cool and lovely! I think is also very confortable and wearable. Nice design.

Ciao

Dario
