Hey guys hope you wasup from somewhere in the south. I've had an account for sometime but i never used it I hope that i can make some stuff that people will like. I myself is very cheap so yea.

Programs:

Anim8or

netfabb

Are there things I should know before I just jump into this.

Welcome

There is a lot to learn. Scroll down to the bottom of this page, under create, click materials and check out all the different materials and their individual rules. Then go down and go through the Learn more section. That'll teach you all you'll ever need to know.
