just wondering how long does it take on average for a silver piece to arrive in Toronto after placing the order, I only have a 5 day window to receive it, so I need to time the order right.

any ideas?

You can see here <http://www.shapeways.com/materials/material-status> the status of all materials. From here you can click on the material to see the standard shipping time. Remember working days are Mon-Fri non holiday days. So 3 weeks if holiday free for silver.
