It would be interesting to know, when new materials or colors are coming?

Is there a timeline?

What's about the squishy material?

Or new colors for the WSF?

From what I've heard, soon. I know at least one material is down to just logistics. Supply demand price sorta stuff.

Hey! There were some issues with both of these launches, but I think we reached a good breakthrough in the past few weeks. Sorry for the delay, I know it's been a while since there's been news!
