Bionic Man's Cross

<http://www.shapeways.com/model/591751/>

Here's a replica of my 2003 Hip Replacement.

I'm 72 now, and it is still walking strongly!

Doubles as a pipe tool.

Ovidiu Opresco, 72 yrs. old "100% self-taught: circus acrobat; saltimbanco; stuntman; artist; cartoonist; illustrator; typographer; photographer; cinematographer; humorist; author; computer programmer; 3d artist; designer; engineer; inventor; - expat from Romania; living in New York since 1969.

As for formal education, I have a degree from an Institute of Higher Learning, incontestably the best in the world at the time my diploma was issued, but, I never used it to make a living; you only have 10 guesses.
