My first shot with a public design. I would greatly appreciate your feedback. Thanks !

Looks great!

You did pretty much everything right - good photos, a clear description and a cool design!

Good luck with many sales - all that's missing is promotion...so I tweeted it to get the ball rolling

Best,
Natalia

Natalie, a lot of e-commerce shops have "Add to Cart" buttons.

On the Shapeway's shop page e.g. <http://www.shapeways.com/shops/twicering> there are no direct calls to action.

This does not make for a great landing page. Each product block could have a call to action added ?

True, the 'Add to Cart' button is on each individual product page, not on your shop's front page.

I will add this as a suggestion for our Shop pages!
