Welcome to Shapeways Wen. Its not often I see a designer in the LA area. Im about 15 minutes away from Pasadena and I had no idea there was a Art Center College Of Design close by that teaches 3d Print. Definitely gotta check it out.

Hi SG designs! yea, we have a few machines here, z-corp, abs, and object. stop by n check it out if you have time:) i think you will like what you see. But the printing limitations are a lot more than here....I love designing with Rhino and Solidworks. I heart jewelry design:) SHAPEWAYS allows me to print much thinner:) without paying for surprising support material:) I like! well, I havn't gotten my first order yet...SO excited:)

Hi wenhan,

I visited your school last October and got an exclusive tour. Your school is amazing. Lots of students with exceptional talent! I love the displayed class projects. Please keep us informed when your projects are in the display!
